

News Alert - Firm Development - May 28, 2015

I wanted to let you know about some changes at our firm. Carlos F. Concepcion and Ricardo H. Puente are departing, effective June 1, to join the international arbitration department at Jones Day. They both remain close friends of the firm and we wish them much success in their new venture.

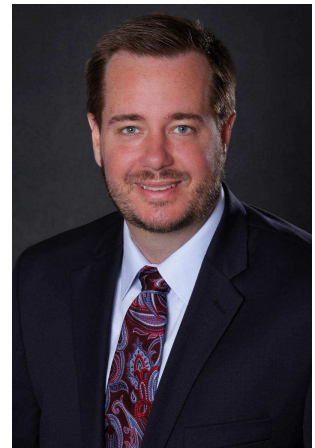

All other attorneys shall remain with the firm, which will now be named MARTINEZ, WHITE & VINIEGRA, with my partners, Gavin White and Barbara Viniegra, becoming name partners.

I am very excited about the future with Gavin and Barbara by my side, and look forward to continuing to provide the quality, personalized service which our clients have come to expect.
